A Woman's Back

Has many aches and pains caused by eaknesses and falling, or other displace ment, of the pelvic organs. Other symp toms of female weakness are frequent beadache, dizziness, imaginary specks or tark spots floating before the eyes, gnawing sensation in stomach, dragging or bearing down in lower abdominal or pelvic disagreeable drains from pelvic rgans, faint spells with general weakness. If any considerable number of the above

Hany considerable number of the above symptoms are present there is no remedy that whi give quicker relief or a more permatent chee than Dr. Pierce's Favorite present of cure. It is the most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening pervine known to medical aclance. It is made of the glyceric extracts of native medical prosts found in our forests and congal roots found in our forests and con ains not a drop of alcohol or harmful, or habit-forming drugs. Its ingredients are all printed on the bottle-wrapper and at tested under oath as correct.

Every ingredient entering into "Fa vorite Prescription" has the written en forsement of the most eminent medical writers of all the several schools of prac tice-more valuable than any amount of p-professional testimonials-though the latter are not lacking, having been con-tributed voluntarily by grateful patients in numbers to exceed the endorsements given to any other medicine extant for the cure of woman's ills.

You cannot afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for this well proven remedy or known composition, even though the dealer may make a little more profit thereby. Your interest in regaining health is paramount to any selfish interest of his and it is an insult to your intelligence for him to try to palm off upon you a substitute. You know what you want and it is his business to supply the article called for.
